

BLESSED

Use the following as an introduction for each of the students whom you've enlisted.

1. This is Sted Stetler. Sted is the CEO of a major software corporation in the United States. His name is all over the Wall Street Journal, Forbes, Fortune, and Money magazines, as well as any other business journal that you can think of. Sted has more money than the Queen of England, a wife, two kids, a house the size of Texas, and nice cars. Basically, he's set for life.
2. Mrs. Sanderson has taught eighth grade for eighteen years. She loves her students, and they love her. Mrs. Sanderson has two teenage girls and a husband. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Sanderson husband make high salaries, but they are happy in their three-bedroom home in the suburbs. They are also very active in their community. In short, Mrs. Sanderson enjoys her life.
3. Here is Sal Jernigan. Sal is a maintenance man. Sal never aspired to be a professional but decided that since he was gifted with his hands and liked to tinker with things, he could be pretty happy keeping things in their proper condition. Sal lives in an apartment that he shares with his older brother, Al. Sal and Al are not only brothers but best friends as well. Life is good for Sal.
4. Bella Blassingame is a hairdresser for the rich and famous. She lives in Beverly Hills and has an exclusive salon along Rodeo Drive. By the time Bella was 18 she was a licensed hairdresser, and by the time that she was 23 she owned her own hair salon. By word of mouth, people of celebrity status started making their way to Bella for the best haircuts and hairstyles around.
