

EASTER: THE GREATEST ASSIGNMENT

Biblical Passages: Matthew 28:17–20

Memory Verses: Matthew 28:18–20

“Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

1. Jesus made it clear to His disciples that the gospel was to be put into _____.
2. The Great Commission has not expired. Those of us who know Christ still have a _____ to perform.
3. While many of the world’s peoples have been reached, _____ still have never heard the gospel.

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Have you lived your life any differently since you came to believe in Jesus?
- How has Christ’s Resurrection made a difference in your life?
- What is your role in God’s worldwide mission?
- If God called you to leave your home and close friends and go share His Good News with people you’ve never met—perhaps with a people group whose language you don’t even know—would you do it?
- Do you tell others about Jesus at school and in your community?
- Who is someone you see almost every day who doesn’t know Christ?
- How can you express your love for Jesus today through specific actions to that person?

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT . . .

“God may leave Christians in their present vocation or professional position. However, it will not be ‘business as usual’ or business as the world around them would have it . . . Since God dwells fully within them, every place they put their feet is holy ground, for God is present in them. That makes their workplace a place where God can accomplish His eternal purposes through them, right there!”

—Henry T. Blackaby and Kerry L. Skinner